Spectacular views of Antigua's famous beaches lined with palms atop a hillside flanked with sugar cane plants, nestled in the beauty of a natural landscape resides the Sugar Ridge. This escape offers a hotel for the active including state-of-the-art amenities, technology and access to golfing. Not to worry, if leisure is the plan, there is plenty of lounging to be had on the veranda, in the luxuriously draped four-poster bed or by the pool. The four-clustered room design nestled in the natural landscape allows the quads to have private entrances. Decorated with rich dark woods and neutral tones carries out the Caribbean feel with style and luxury. Also available are private residences in a planned, gated, security-patrolled community. Still in the planning phase and a few years away from actuality is a woman's most euphoric desire, a boutique chocolate hotel. That's right, a hotel built on the Rabot Estate working cocoa plantation. Talk about a respite for the body, mind and soul. Ladies, this takes indulgence to a whole new level and St. Lucia is actualizing the extravagance with Hotel Chocolat.
