Valentine's Day Extends All Year
At New Boutique Cottage Hotel on Grand Cayman

*Aphrodisiac Dinner, Professional Memento Photograph, Luxury Yachting Experience & More
Included in Three Night Romance Package Available Now through April 2010
At Cotton Tree, Caymans' First Boutique Cottage Hotel*

Grand Cayman (January 6, 2010) – A private tour aboard a luxury yacht, aphrodisiac dinner prepared in-suite, professional photograph amid lush landscape and more entice couples this Valentine's Day and beyond to Cotton Tree, the Cayman Islands' first boutique cottage hotel. The romantic treatment starts when couples enter their beachfront cottage, pre-stocked with grapes and cheese and champagne and chocolate. A memento of the occasion, couples can receive a professional photograph of the couple, done either in Cotton Tree's garden (under a Cotton Tree or exotic fruit tree) or on the beach. Additionally, a top local chef is on hand for a cooking lesson to prepare an aphrodisiac dinner ensuite (starting with oysters or one of the Caribbean's favorite aphrodisiacs, conch, and ending with a chocolate decadence dessert) with a sommelier choosing the wines to match. Couples are also treated to three hours on a luxury 42' Sea Ray sport yacht that includes fresh fruit, light snacks, snorkel gear, the use of a Sea-Doo Wave runner, sparkling wine and an open bar. A media library of books, music and DVDs; breakfast food items (a selection of coffees and teas, juices, eggs, cereal, milk) pre-stocked in the cottages or a continental breakfast delivered daily; WIFI and local calls; fresh fruit; bicycles, and roundtrip airport transfers are also included. The three-night Honeymoon Romance Package costs $3,500 per couple. Taxes are additional.

About Cotton Tree:

The Cayman Islands' new luxury hideaway, Cotton Tree, on the northernmost point of Grand Cayman (ten minutes from the famed Seven Mile Beach), beautifully evokes the spirit of the Cayman Islands with its pastel-hued, plantation-style cottages just steps from the Caribbean Sea and lush garden setting of tropical flowers and avocado, guava, mango and cotton trees for which the hotel was named. Owner Heather Lockington, a global traveler who was born in the Cayman Islands, built her dream property in West Bay, creating an authentic haven where guests could embrace Caymanian heritage. Four 1,600 square foot two-bedroom beachfront cottages resemble fully equipped houses featuring "Caribbean chic" décor, classic contemporary furnishings, French doors overlooking the sea, plasma TVs, state-of-the-art Kitchen Aid appliances, and more. Additional amenities include a freshwater swimming pool, fitness center and yoga and spa pavilions nestled among seagrape trees, perfect for a sunset massage. A personal chef can whip up gourmet meals accompanied by wines chosen by a sommelier, or Cotton Tree is a quick drive to Grand Cayman's best restaurants. Additionally, hotel services such as a reception/concierge, bellhop, housekeeping and turndown on request are also featured.
