

Escape to Paradise

The Cayman Islands is home to some of the most luxurious accommodation in the Caribbean. Whether you want to enjoy the splendour of Seven Mile Beach or relax on a private stretch of sand, you are sure to find a place to suit your needs with all the pampering you could ever hope for. What are you waiting for? This is your escape to paradise.

A home away from home

Discover your own private hideaway at Cotton Tree. Situated on the shores of the Caribbean Sea, in the peaceful surrounds of West Bay, Cotton Tree offers luxury accommodation with a nod to Caymanian heritage.

The brainchild of owner Heather Lockington, who was born and raised in the Cayman Islands, Cotton Tree captures the style and laidback atmosphere of Caribbean living. Heather's dream was to create an exclusive haven that offered the privacy of a home with the services of the world's best hotels.

As one of Grand Cayman's only boutique hotels, Cotton Tree is home to four private cottages. Design is integral to creating a luxurious atmosphere, with each cottage decorated in a unique yet chic coastal style with careful attention to detail. The cottages – Thatch, Sea Grape, Cocoplum and Almond – offer unparalleled services not found in most hotels. Each cottage has two bedrooms and two bathrooms with a living and dining area, gourmet kitchen, private veranda, Jacuzzi and rainforest shower, multi-media features and catering from a personal chef.

To ensure your stay is as comfortable as possible, the kitchen is restocked daily with a selection of teas and coffee, fresh fruit, breakfast items and wines, beers and spirits selected by a sommelier. The on-site spa will ensure your vacation is not without a good dose of pampering. Or keep up with your fitness routine in the Yoga Pavilion and state-of-the-art gym.

With a lush tropical garden and the sparkling Caribbean Sea only steps from your door, Cotton Tree is your luxury home away from home.

For many, it can be difficult to unwind on vacation. The lingering pressures of work, combined with the desire to make the most of our time away, can create a feeling of defeat, even in a tropical paradise.

But at Cotton Tree, relaxation is not a choice, it is inevitable. The boutique cottage hotel, nestled on the secluded coastline of West Bay, has redefined the vacation experience in the Cayman Islands. Combining impeccable design with Caymanian heritage, Cotton Tree is the ultimate private hideaway, a place to unwind and fall in love with the islands.

Owner Heather Lockington, who was born and raised in the Cayman Islands, found inspiration for Cotton Tree in her extensive travels around the world. Heather wanted to create a high-end boutique hotel that also had a connection to the Caymanian environment and culture, a hotel with a sense of a place.

It was an extensive project, but Heather was involved every step of the way. Indeed, her attention to detail and dedication to creating a unique oasis for her guests has propelled Cotton Tree into another league of accommodation in the Cayman Islands.

The charming property, brimming with tropical fruits and flowers, is home to four, Caymanian-style cottages. Yet, despite their traditional exteriors, the cottages feature every service and amenity you could ever need on vacation.

Relax in your personal jacuzzi or take a dip in the freshwater pool only steps from your door. Gourmands will delight in the fully-equipped kitchens, where you can whip up your own meals or indulge in the pre-selected range of teas, coffees, breakfast items and snacks, as well as beers and wines from around the world hand-selected by a sommelier. A personal chef is available with 24 hours notice. Each cottage, with two bedrooms and two bathrooms, features stunning interior design that captures the tranquil atmosphere of Cayman. With views that stretch across the sparkling Caribbean Sea, this is truly an oasis of calm.

Heather says Cotton Tree provides guests with the option to do as little or as much as they want. The onsite Fitness centre and Yoga Pavilion is ideal for those with an eye to maintaining their workouts, while tours of nearby Barkers National Park as well as the Mastic Trail are perfect for exploring the beauty of the island.

For those who prefer a slower pace, the Cotton Tree Spa is an idyllic retreat. Indulge in a signature facial or a rejuvenating body treatment, using only the purest products. Or simply relax with the rhythmic sounds of the ocean in Cotton Tree's lush setting. The choice is yours.

Yet Cotton Tree is not only an authentic haven for travelers. It is also a stunning location for the smaller wedding. What could be more romantic than exchanging vows under the canopy of trees, with the Caribbean Sea gently lapping at the shore? Cotton Tree offers a range of Wedding Packages, from an intimate ceremony for two to an elegant reception for up to 20 guests.

For romance and relaxation, luxury and location, Cotton Tree is your ideal island hideaway.
