

COTTON TREE

“A LUXURY
BOUTIQUE
GETAWAY”

| By Lisa Mckennie

Located on the northernmost point of Grand Cayman in the British West Indies, Cotton Tree Resort magnificently induces the spirit of the Cayman Islands, a luxury hideaway for travelers who seek the ultimate vacation home-away-from-home.

Opening its doors back in April of 2009, Heather Lockington, owner and global traveler who was born in the Cayman Islands, has been able to establish this beautiful resort, offering distinctive services for anyone who wants to experience the uniqueness of Cotton Tree. Her inspiration started when one day she was stopped on the beach by a family who asked her for any places in Cayman, other than the traditional hotels, where they can feel at home. After realizing that such a place did not exist, Ms. Lockington set about creating an authentic haven where guests could embrace Caymanian heritage. She was quoted as saying "I want people to understand the island's architecture, art, cuisine; basically, to learn about the essence of the Cayman Islands and its people." Since then, this beautiful boutique resort has been the place-to-be for families, discerning travelers and honeymooners!

Situated on over 400 feet of beachfront property, Cotton Tree Resort is just steps from the Caribbean Sea. You can enjoy a lush garden setting of tropical flowers and avocado, guava, mango and cotton trees for which the hotel was named. The Beach Cottages consist of four two-bedroom and two-bathroom cottages uniquely named Almond, Cocoplum, Seagrape and Thatch, each measuring 1,600 square feet and resembling fully equipped homes.

Highlights of the caribbean chic décor includes classic contemporary furnishings by award winning designer Adriana Hoyos, French doors overlooking the sea, black-and-white photos of old Cayman, 600 thread count Egyptian cotton sheets, and Caribbean-inspired handcrafted furniture. Each cottage has a full-sized refrigerator pre-stocked with breakfast items such as organic eggs, juices, bread, cereal and local condiments, snacks, tea and coffee, however, if you prefer, continental breakfast can be delivered on a daily basis, or upon request, a personal chef can prepare meals in the cottages and a sommelier can make personal wine recommendations; In addition, Cotton Tree is only minutes away of Grand Cayman's best restaurants, such as Ristorante Pappagallo, Morgans Harbour Seafood Restaurant and Fisherman's Reef.

Some of the resort's additional amenities include a freshwater swimming pool, fitness center and yoga and spa pavilions nestled among seagrape trees, perfect for a sunset massage! Guests can also experience activities hand-selected by Ms. Lockington including biking to Barker's National Park, bird-watching and art & culinary classes. Cotton Tree also offers countless romantic venues and captivating vistas to those who would like to have their "special day" celebration held at the resort. The Concierge staff will be pleased to arrange catering or personal chef services for your wedding event, and dedicated wedding professionals are on site to guide you every step of the way.

So why wait?! Plan your unique vacation and be a guest at Cotton Tree Resort, the ideal place to unwind and reconnect with nature in an exclusive setting!

For more information or reservations, please visit www.caymancottontree.com

